

Court Interpreter Certification & Regulation Program

Continuing Interpreter Education

Approved Continuing Interpreter Education Programs

The following programs have been approved by the Court Interpreter Certification and Regulation Program (CICRP) for Continuing Interpreter Education (CIE) credit. The activities offered as education are deemed relevant to the work of the courts and enhance the participant's ability to perform his or her work as a court interpreter. Attendees are responsible for keeping their own records of attendance or completion and course hour documentation.

NOTE: Participants must contact the event sponsor directly for related registration and course information. The CICRP has no involvement with the specific details of the approved programs.
