

Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Rules and Policy

The Florida Dispute Resolution Center (DRC) is currently accepting applications for 6 member appointments to the Committee on ADR Rules and Policy commencing July 1, 2018. Of the appointments:

- At least 3 member appointments must be lawyer mediators who have been certified for more than 5 years; and
- At least 2 member appointments must be non-lawyer mediators who have been certified for more than 5 years; and
- At least 1 member of the judiciary; and
- Of the 6 appointments, at least 1 must be a primary trainer who is also a Florida Supreme Court certified mediation training program provider.

The Committee on ADR Rules and Policy provides the Supreme Court with recommendations relating to ADR legislation, and all aspects of ADR policy and rules including, but not limited to, model ADR practices, mediator certification and renewal requirements, continuing education requirements, and mediation training program requirements.

Appointments are made by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Florida for a three-year term. Please see AOSC16-40 for more information.
