

Mediator Ethics Advisory Committee Vacancies

The Mediator Ethics Advisory Committee (MEAC) is a 9 member body that issues written advisory ethics opinions for mediators subject to the Florida Rules for Certified and Court-Appointed Mediators. The Florida Dispute Resolution Center (DRC) is currently accepting applications for the appointment of 3 certified mediators who hold any type of certification.

The committee meets via conference call on the first Tuesday of the month from 12 noon – 1:30 pm EST with one in-person meeting a year. The member terms advertised below will commence on July 1st and members serve four-year terms.

If you are interested in serving on the MEAC, please submit both a letter of interest and current résumé to:
