

DRC's 18th Annual Conference for Mediators and Arbitrators
Changes and Challenges
August 20-22, 2009

Rosen Centre Hotel, Orlando

Contents

Introduction.....	3
Collaborating Organizations	3
Schedule of Events.....	3
Thursday, August 20, 2009.....	3
Friday, August 21, 2009.....	3
Saturday, August 22, 2009.....	4
Keynote Speaker	4
Rachel Wohl.....	4
Featured Guests.....	4
Anthony Porter.....	5
Sharon Press.....	5
Florida Academy of Professional Mediators	5
Court-Appointed Arbitrator Training	5
Thursday, August 20, 2009, from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.....	5
Fee Schedule	6
Pre-Conference, Court-Appointed Arbitrator Training held on August 20.....	6
Conference (August 21 - 22).....	6
Registration.....	6
Guest Meal Tickets	6
Hotel Accommodations	6
ADA Accommodations.....	7
Cancellation Policy	7
Saturday Only Attendance	7
Continuing Education	7
Session A Workshop Selections	7
Friday, August 21, from 10:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.	7
Featured Workshop Session A1. Breaking Impasse & the Martial Arts: Advancing as a Kick-#$$% Mediator!	7
Session A2. Building a Better Business.....	8
Session A3. The Mediation Within The Mediation: Sources of Intra Party and Inter Party Conflict.....	8
Session A4. Florida ADR Case Law Update.....	8
Session A5. Mediation: The Dance and the Deal.....	8
Session A6. Conflict Resolution Procedures Under Florida's Governmental Conflict Resolution Act and Land Use and Environmental Dispute Reconciliation Act.	8
Session A7. Diversity in Living Color.....	9
Session A8. What Are Acceptable Limits of Deception in Mediation?	9
Session A9. Game Theory and the Strategy of Conflict in Mediation.	9

Session A10. Train the Mediation Trainer: Training with Panache.	9
Session A11. Family Violence: A Typology and the Implications for Mediation. ...	9
Session A12. Mediator’s Tool Box.....	9
Session A13. Diversity: Our Changing World.	10
Session A14. The Role of County Mediation: You Think You Know It All!.....	10
Session A15. Beyond Small Claims: Mediating Interpersonal Disputes That Do Not Involve Monetary Issues.	10
Session B Workshop Selections.....	10
Friday, August 21, from 1:45 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.	10
B1 Reflections on Florida Mediator Grievances: Enforcing Ethics	10
B2 Improving Mediation through People Skills	10
B3 Essential Financial Concepts for Family Mediators and Practitioners	11
B4 Understanding Cultural Frameworks: Techniques for Mediators.....	11
B5 Is Incorporating Your Mediation Practice All It’s Cracked Up to Be?.....	11
B6 “I Don’t Do That!” Bad Habits of Good Mediators.....	11
B7 The Role of Public Agencies Offering Mediation Services – Part Deux.....	11
B8 Religion and Domestic Violence: Intimate Partner Violence in Specific Religious Groups.....	12
B9 Angels and Demons: How Mediations Rise and Fall through Narrative.....	12
B10 Tapping into the Energy Cues: How Emotional Awareness Supports Mediation Success.....	12
B11 ABC’s of Diversity Mediation: Attitudes, Behaviors and Cultural Challenges	12
12 The Nuts and Bolts of Running Your Mediation Practice.....	12
B13 Ethical Challenges in Mediation: Deal or No Deal?.....	13
B14 Purpose Drives Practice: What’s Your Purpose?.....	13
B15 Domestic Violence: What Mediators Need To Know	13
Workshops Session C	13
Saturday, August 22 from 8:00 am - 9:45 am.....	13
C1 Chemical Dependency and Domestic Violence.....	13
C2 Steak and Sizzle: Pro Se Family Mediation and Attracting Clients.....	13
C3 Interpersonal Skills.....	14
C4 Expanding Access to Justice Globally Through Court-Related Mediation	14
C5 Mediation in Afghanistan.....	14
C6 Selling the Process: Winning Tactics to Engage Mediation Participants	14
C7 Workers’ Compensation.....	14
C8 Multiculturalism and Mediation: Where Are We Now?.....	14
C9 The Peacemakers of Institutionalized Mediation: Theories to Reveal the Influences of Power in Family Mediation	15
C10 Circle Process and Creative Problem Solving in Mediation.....	15
C11 God as Mediation Participant.....	15
C12 Mindfulness for Conflict Resolvers	15
C13 Tips for Non-Attorney Mediators: Working with Attorneys	16
C14 Residential Foreclosure Mediation: A Tsunami Wave?	16

Introduction

Changes and Challenges, the Eighteenth Annual Conference for Mediators and Arbitrators, will be held on August 20 through 22, 2009, at the Rosen Centre Hotel, in Orlando, Florida.

Changes and Challenges is presented by the Dispute Resolution Center. The Center was established in 1986 as Florida's statewide center for education, training and research in the field of alternative dispute resolution. The Center provides staff assistance to four Florida Supreme Court mediation boards and committees; certifies mediators and mediation training programs; provides basic and advanced county mediation training to volunteers; and assists the courts throughout Florida with dispute resolution programs.

The event is co-sponsored by the Florida Academy of Professional Mediators. The Academy's mission is to facilitate the exchange of knowledge and ideas between professionals in the field of mediation and to promote the process of mediation as an effective and efficient tool for dispute resolution.

Collaborating Organizations

Association of South Florida Mediators & Arbitrators
 DivorceWithoutWar.com
 Florida Chapter of AFCC
 Mediation Training Group
 Christopher M. Shulman, P.A.
 USF Conflict Resolution Collaborative

Schedule of Events

Thursday, August 20, 2009

10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.	Court-Appointed Arbitrator Training.
5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.	Conference Registration and Early Registration.

Friday, August 21, 2009

7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m.	Conference Registration and Breakfast.
8:30 a.m. to 10:15 a.m.	Opening Plenary Session and Keynote Presentation by Rachel Wohl, Esquire. Eligible for 2.1 CME hours.
10:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.	Session A Workshop Selections.

	Eligible for 2.1 CME hours.
12:15 p.m. to 1:45 p.m.	Lunch – provided.
1:45 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.	Session B Workshop Selections. Eligible for 2.1 CME hours.
3:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.	Beverage Break.
4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.	Plenary Session: Violence Against Women: Become Part of the Solution presented by Anthony Porter. Eligible for 1.2 domestic violence CME hours and 1.2 Diversity/Cultural Awareness CME hours.
5:15 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.	Facilitated Discussions. Eligible for 0.9 domestic violence CME hours and 0.9 Diversity/Cultural Awareness CME hours.

Saturday, August 22, 2009

7:30 a.m. to 8:00 a.m.	Breakfast.
8:00 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.	Session C Workshop Selections. Eligible for 2.1 CME hours.
10:10 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.	Ethics Plenary: MEAC Opinions - A Year in Review Moderated by Professor Sharon Press. Eligible for 2.2 CME hours including 2.0 in Ethics.

Keynote Speaker

Rachel Wohl

Rachel is the Executive Director of MACRO, Maryland's nationally acclaimed Mediation and Conflict Resolution Office. Rachel was a litigator in private practice for many years and served as one of Maryland's Assistant Attorneys General. She has published articles and led workshops across the country on a variety of legal and dispute resolution topics. Rachel is a mediator and collaborative process designer who has practiced mediation for over a decade and received the Association for Conflict Resolution's 2001 Award for Innovation.

Featured Guests

Anthony Porter

Anthony is an educator, activist and lecturer. Tony is a gifted public speaker working the social justice arena for over twenty years. He is nationally recognized for his effort to end men's violence against women and is a co-founder behind A Call to Men: The National Association of Men and Women Committed to Ending Violence Against Women. He is currently working with numerous domestic violence programs, the national football league, and colleges and universities across the country.

Sharon Press

Sharon is an associate professor of law and Director of the Hamline University School of Law Dispute Resolution Institute. Sharon became director of the nationally recognized Dispute Resolution Institute in July 2009 after previously serving as the Director of the Florida Dispute Resolution Center for almost twenty years. Sharon is a Florida Supreme Court certified county and family mediator and co-author of two ADR textbooks.

Florida Academy of Professional Mediators

The Florida Academy of Professional Mediators invites you to join them in the celebration of the Academy's 20-year Anniversary. Check event schedule at the Conference for details.

The Academy will be collecting cans for their annual Canned Food Drive to distribute to local agencies at the Conference. Bring a can to the Conference if you would like to donate.

Court-Appointed Arbitrator Training

Thursday, August 20, 2009, from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

This training meets the requirements of rule 11.020, Florida Rules for Court-Appointed Arbitrators. Arbitrators for court-ordered cases must be members of The Florida Bar. Individuals who are not members may serve only on an arbitration panel and only upon the written agreement of all parties. The training is conducted by Cary R. Singletary, Esquire. Cary has been practicing as an attorney for over 30 years, is an arbitrator, trainer and a Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit Mediator.

Training materials, lunch and a refreshment break are included in the registration fee. Please note, the Florida Supreme Court does not certify arbitrators; and attendance at the Arbitrator Training does not qualify for CME credit hours. Seating is limited to 100 persons.

Fee Schedule

Pre-Conference, Court-Appointed Arbitrator Training held on August 20

The fee for registrations postmarked by July 22, is One Hundred Twenty-Five Dollars. The fee for registrations postmarked from July 23 to August 12, is One Hundred Fifty Dollars.

The fee for registrations paid onsite is Two Hundred Dollars.

Conference (August 21 - 22)

The fee for registrations postmarked by July 22, is One Hundred Twenty-Five Dollars. The fee for registrations postmarked from July 23 to August 12, is One Hundred Fifty Dollars.

The fee for registrations paid onsite is Two Hundred Dollars.

Registrations postmarked after August 12, 2009, will not be accepted and participants will be required to register onsite.

Registration fees must be paid by check or money order. Checks should be made payable to the ROSEN CENTRE and mailed to the Dispute Resolution Center. The registration fee includes an evening reception, two breakfasts, lunch and all program materials. Registration fees do not include hotel accommodations which must be booked and paid for separately.

Registration

This year we are continuing with our simplified registration process. Simply complete the registration form and indicate if you are attending the Arbitrator Training, the Conference or both. Workshop selections will be made on site.

Guest Meal Tickets

The registration fee includes the Thursday evening reception, Friday breakfast and lunch, and Saturday breakfast. If you have a guest that will be joining you for any of the banquet functions, please purchase guest meal tickets in advance.

Hotel Accommodations

Sleeping rooms have been reserved at the special rate of $103 per night. To make reservations contact the Rosen Centre at (800) 204-7234 and request the special Dispute Resolution Center Conference Rate. To receive this rate, reservations must be made no later than July 22, 2009. Reservations made after that date are subject to availability.

Location

The Rosen Centre is located at 9840 International Drive in Orlando. The self-parking fee is waived for Conference attendees. Please advise the hotel you are attending the Dispute Resolution Center Conference.

ADA Accommodations

As defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), reasonable accommodations will be made for persons with disabilities. Please call the Dispute Resolution Center at (850) 921-2910 or email at DRCmail@flcourts.org if you require an accommodation.

Cancellation Policy

Please read carefully. Due to the financial arrangements of the Conference, monetary refunds for cancellations are not available. However, your fee may be used as a credit toward the 2010 Dispute Resolution Center Conference. Please send your written request via email at DRCmail@flcourts.org or via fax at (850) 922-9290. All requests must be received no later than August 19, 2009.

Saturday Only Attendance

Saturday Only Attendance. Up to 4.3 hours of CME (including a minimum of 2.0 in mediator ethics) can be earned by attendance on Saturday only. If you are interested in this option call the DRC at (850) 921-2910 or email at DRCmail@flcourts.org for more information.

Continuing Education

Full attendance is eligible for up to 12.7 CME hours which includes a minimum of 2.0 mediator ethics, 2.1 domestic violence education and 2.1 in diversity/cultural awareness education.

Florida Bar Credits for the Arbitrator Training and Conference have been applied for.

Session A Workshop Selections

Friday, August 21, from 10:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

Featured Workshop Session A1. Breaking Impasse & the Martial Arts: Advancing as a Kick-#$$% Mediator!

This highly interactive session trains mediators in conflict resolution from the perspective of an experienced mediator and martial artist. Learn how to defend yourself from declaring the dreaded "impasse." Presenter: John W. Salmon, Esquire, BlackBelt, Cuong Nhu Oriental Martial Arts Association and Past President of the Florida Academy of Professional Mediators. Format: Highly interactive. Recommended for: All mediators.

Session A2. Building a Better Business.

This workshop offers both new and seasoned professionals helpful hints for building a successful family mediation practice including tips for relating to potential clients (and their secretaries). Presenter: Stuart W. Umbarger, Esquire, Certified Family Mediator. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: Family mediators.

Session A3. The Mediation Within The Mediation: Sources of Intra Party and Inter Party Conflict.

This workshop offers an opportunity to address disputes between attorney and client on the same side of the case or between the attorneys. Presenters: Jerome Tabas, Principal, Tabas Mediation Services and Vice President, Association of South Florida Mediators and Arbitrators; and David Lichter, Esquire, Certified Circuit Civil Mediator. Format: Lecture with audience interaction Recommended for: All mediators. Eligible for mediator ethics credit.

Session A4. Florida ADR Case Law Update.

This session examines Florida appellate court decisions related to ADR statutes and rules and their importance to ADR practitioners. Presenter: Michael J. Gelfand, Esquire, Board Certified Real Estate Attorney/Principal ARC Mediation. Format: Lecture with little or no audience participation. Recommended for: All mediators. Eligible for mediator ethics credit.

Session A5. Mediation: The Dance and the Deal.

This interactive workshop offers an analysis of the circuit mediation process from pre-mediation preparation, opening statements, private caucuses, techniques for avoiding impasse and documenting and finalizing a settlement agreement. Presenter: Stephen C. Sawicki, Esquire, Executive Director, American College of Civil Trial Mediators. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: Circuit civil mediators.

Session A6. Conflict Resolution Procedures Under Florida's Governmental Conflict Resolution Act and Land Use and Environmental Dispute Reconciliation Act.

This session examines the ADR provisions in the Governmental Conflict Resolution Act and Land Use and Environmental Dispute Reconciliation Act in an organized and simplified frame. Presenter: Sandra C. Upchurch, Esquire, Mediation Counsel, Upchurch, Watson, White & Max. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: Public Sector Mediators.

Session A7. Diversity in Living Color.

This session offers the audience “real life” examples highlighting the dynamics of cultural issues in mediation and their impact on the process, the parties and the mediator. Presenter: Dr. Oscar Franco, J.D., Venezuela, Certified County, Family and Circuit Mediator. Format: Moderated panel with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators. Eligible for diversity/cultural awareness credit.

Session A8. What Are Acceptable Limits of Deception in Mediation?

This workshop explores ethical questions surrounding the use, and degrees, of deception and truthfulness employed by mediators. Presenters: Robin Caral Shaw, Esquire, Certified Family and Circuit Mediator and Amy S. Wolsky, Esquire, Certified Family Mediator. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators. Eligible for mediator ethics credit.

Session A9. Game Theory and the Strategy of Conflict in Mediation.

Oscar Award movie, A Beautiful Mind, introduces the public to Professor Nash’s Mathematical Theory of Games as a strategic method for resolving conflicts. This session provides practical application of Nash’s theories to the mediation process. Presenter: John A. Henneberger, Esquire, Certified Circuit Civil Mediator and Federal Mediator in the Southern District of Florida. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators.

Session A10. Train the Mediation Trainer: Training with Panache.

This workshop offers mediation trainers an opportunity to sharpen and refresh their skills and add panache to their training delivery methods. Presenters: Melvin A. Rubin, Esquire, President, American Colleague of Civil Trial Mediators; and Stephanie McHardy, Certified County Mediator and Primary County Mediation Trainer. Format: Lecture with audience interaction and group activities. Recommended for: Mediation trainers.

Session A11. Family Violence: A Typology and the Implications for Mediation.

This session presents recent research and perspectives on family violence and explores and defines the typology of family violence and its impact on the mediation process. Presenter: Judith McKay, J.D., Ph.D., Chair, Department of Multidisciplinary Studies, Nova Southeastern University. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators. Eligible for domestic violence education credit.

Session A12. Mediator’s Tool Box.

This presentation discusses a variety of tools and techniques mediators can use to expand their repertoire and develops strategies for successful mediations. Presenter: Peter O.

Brick, Esquire, Certified County, Family, Circuit and Dependency Mediator. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: Family and Circuit Mediators.

Session A13. Diversity: Our Changing World.

This session provides an overview of the concepts of diversity and discusses how attitudes drive our perceptions and behaviors. Presenter: Janelle Walkley, M.S., Co-Founder, The Settlement Center. Format: Lecture and group activities. Recommended for: All mediators. Eligible for diversity/cultural awareness credit.

Session A14. The Role of County Mediation: You Think You Know It All!

This workshop examines the role of county mediation in county court and the mediator's role in the process including unique approaches to routine matters. Presenters: Arve A. Wikstrom, J.D., Alternate Dispute Resolution, LLC, Rosemary Fansher, Parent Coordination Director, Ninth Judicial Circuit, and The Honorable Theodore Haynes, Federal Administrative Law Judge, retired. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: County mediators.

Session A15. Beyond Small Claims: Mediating Interpersonal Disputes That Do Not Involve Monetary Issues.

This workshop introduces participants to the mediation skills necessary to mediate disputes centered on intangible issues that are relationship based. Presenter: Andrew Thomas, President, ALT Associates Conflict Management Consultants. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: County mediators.

Session B Workshop Selections

Friday, August 21, from 1:45 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

B1 Reflections on Florida Mediator Grievances: Enforcing Ethics

After serving as staff to the Mediator Qualifications Board (MQB) for 17 years, Sharon will discuss some of the more interesting grievances and decisions and offer some thoughts for the future. Presenter: Professor Sharon Press, Esquire, Director, Institute for Dispute Resolution, Hamline University School of Law. Format: Lecture. Recommended for: All mediators.

B2 Improving Mediation through People Skills

This presentation introduces mediators to leadership negotiation and communication skills that assist them in managing their own behavior and the behaviors of the parties during the dispute resolution process. Presenter: Gregory Hoffman, Esquire, Hoffman Mediation. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators.

B3 Essential Financial Concepts for Family Mediators and Practitioners

This highly interactive presentation gives participants a working knowledge of the five different financial areas within the divorce process. Presenter: Darryll R. Bauchert, Sr., MBA, CFP, CDFP. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: Family mediators.

B4 Understanding Cultural Frameworks: Techniques for Mediators

This workshop combines lecture, discussion and group activities to enhance the understanding of different cultural frameworks and offers effective techniques to work with a culturally diverse practice. Presenters: Tina Jaeckle, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Flagler College; and Alexia Georgakopoulos, Ph.D., Director, Institute for Conflict Resolution Communication. Format: Lecture with group activities. Recommended for: All mediators.

B5 Is Incorporating Your Mediation Practice All It's Cracked Up to Be?

This presentation explores various forms of business entity formation, including tax consequences of expenses, deductions, and payroll issues. Presenters: Linda Smith, Enrolled Agent, ATA, ABA and Ed Alexander, Esquire, Principal, FitzGibbon Alexander, Inc. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: Private mediators.

B6 "I Don't Do That!" Bad Habits of Good Mediators

Through the use of real life examples, a humorous skit and audience interaction, this presentation addresses the subtle poor habits that experienced mediators may have adopted over time and common complaints against mediators. Presenters: Kim W. Torres, Torres Mediation Services; and Ollie M. Lyons, Mediation Services Coordinator, 18th Judicial Circuit. Format: Lecture, audience interaction and skit. Recommended for: All mediators.

B7 The Role of Public Agencies Offering Mediation Services – Part Deux

This panel presentation offers attendees information on federal, state, county, and city that provide mediation services in the areas of discrimination and best practices for doing so. Presenters: Bob Jett, Marvin Frazier, Kimberley Reynolds, Federal Mediators, US Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Shirley James, Director, City of Orlando Office of Human Relations, and Charlene Taylor Hill, Executive Director, Jacksonville

Human Rights Commission. Format: Panel with audience interaction. Recommended for: Public sector mediators.

B8 Religion and Domestic Violence: Intimate Partner Violence in Specific Religious Groups

This session explores intimate partner violence within Christian, Jewish and Muslim faith communities and discusses current and historical responses to this societal problem from religious institutions. Presenter: Earnestine Reshard, Senior Court Analyst II, Dispute Resolution Center. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators.

B9 Angels and Demons: How Mediations Rise and Fall through Narrative

In mediation parties typically see and present themselves as the “angel” and the other party as the “demon.” This workshop examines the role of narrative in mediation from interdisciplinary perspectives and explores the ways it can be used as part of the transformative process. Presenters: Judith McKay, J.D., Ph.D., Chair, Department of Multidisciplinary Studies; and Richard Toumey, M.F.A., Writer and Adjunct, DMS/Nova Southeastern University. Format: Lecture and group activities. Recommended for: All mediators.

B10 Tapping into the Energy Cues: How Emotional Awareness Supports Mediation Success

This presentation focuses on the direct connection between emotions and personal perceptions and how acute awareness of this dynamic supports the mediation process. Presenter: Coach Nagy, Certified County Mediator, Business and Life Coach, Coaching for Success, Inc. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators.

B11 ABC’s of Diversity Mediation: Attitudes, Behaviors and Cultural Challenges

This interactive session focuses on attitudinal, behavioral and cultural elements of diversity through the use of exercises that enhance communication skills when dealing with diverse participants. Presenters: Robert Shearer, J.D., Professor of Management & Executive Assistant to the President, University of South Alabama; and Jeanne Maes, Ph.D., Professor of Management, Mitchell College of Business, University of South Alabama. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators.

12 The Nuts and Bolts of Running Your Mediation Practice

This session provides an overview of the Mediation Practice Management cycle from attracting clients, scheduling mediations, engaging clients, collecting payments to follow-up marketing strategies. Presenters: Ellen Kaslow Shulman, ADR Case and Business Manager, Christopher M. Shulman, P.A. and Christopher M. Shulman, Esquire, Mediator, Arbitrator & Trainer. Format: Lecture with audience interaction.

Recommended for: Private mediators.

B13 Ethical Challenges in Mediation: Deal or No Deal?

This interactive workshop focuses on challenging ethical issues that mediators confront in family and dependency mediation and the interplay of the code of conduct for mediators, relevant Florida Statutes and the mediator's own personal ethics. Presenter: Gregory Firestone, Ph.D., Director, University of South Florida Conflict Resolution Consortium, Format: Lecture with Audience/Interaction. Recommended for: Family & Dependency Mediators

B14 Purpose Drives Practice: What's Your Purpose?

Highlighting concepts of diversity and self-determination, this workshop challenges participants to think about how they practice mediation, why they are in this field and how their practice is shaped by their worldview of people and conflict. Presenter: Andrew Thomas, President, ALT Associates Conflict Management Consultants. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators.

B15 Domestic Violence: What Mediators Need To Know

This workshop taps into the trainees' wisdom and offers them an opportunity to create and collaborate on the creation of a "Mediators Guide to Domestic Violence." Presenters: Elinor Robin, Ph.D., President, A Friendly Divorce; and Susan Dubow, President, Mediation Training Group, Inc. Format: Lecture and group activities. Recommended for: All mediators.

Workshops Session C

Saturday, August 22 from 8:00 am - 9:45 am

C1 Chemical Dependency and Domestic Violence

This workshop focuses on the interconnection of chemical drug dependency and acts of domestic violence. Presenter: Anthony Porter, Co-Founder, A Call to Men: The National Association of Men and Women Committed to Ending Violence Against Women. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators.

C2 Steak and Sizzle: Pro Se Family Mediation and Attracting Clients

This workshop provides attendees with model practices and marketing approaches for building a pro-se family mediation practice. Presenter: Gerald S. Deutsch, Esquire, Certified Family Mediator, Founder, Divorce Without War. Format: Lecture with little audience participation. Recommended for: Family mediators.

C3 Interpersonal Skills

In this workshop, participants are introduced to the mechanics of interpersonal skills including behavioral styles, value systems and conflict management. Presenter: Daniel Baldwin, Managing Director, Baldwin & Associates. Format: Lecture with little or no audience participation. Recommended for: All mediators.

C4 Expanding Access to Justice Globally Through Court-Related Mediation

This presentation explores court-based mediation in several regions of the world and examines the cultural and historical influences that affects the type of court-based mediation model utilized. Presenter: Lynn H. Cole, Esquire, Certified Circuit Mediator and International Trainer. Format: Lecture and group activities. Recommended for: All mediators.

C5 Mediation in Afghanistan

Captain Arve Wikstrom, US Army, shares his experiences mediating between a warlord and a group of women over voting rights in a parliamentary election in Afghanistan in 2005. Presenter: Arve A. Wikstrom, J.D., Alternate Dispute Resolution, LLC. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators.

C6 Selling the Process: Winning Tactics to Engage Mediation Participants

This workshop is designed to help mediators inject new life into their processes by encouraging creative and engaging opening statements that will grab participant attention and interest and explores creative techniques to “close the deal” while protecting rights of self determination. Presenter: Rodney Romano, Esquire, Mediator, Matrix Mediation. Format: Lecture with audience interaction and group activities. Recommended for: All mediators.

C7 Workers’ Compensation

This sessions provides the basic understanding of Workers’ Compensation law, issues routinely encountered and reviews the “new” Medicare Set Aside Allocations. Presenter: Jonathan Conant, Esquire, President, Conant Mediation Center. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: Workers’ Compensation mediators.

C8 Multiculturalism and Mediation: Where Are We Now?

This presentation focuses on diversity within generational differences and offers a wide range of contemporary societal issues for discussion. Presenter: Kirk Rascoe, Director, Equal Opportunity and Compliance, University of South Florida. Format: Lecture with audience inter-action. Recommended for: All mediators.

C9 The Peacemakers of Institutionalized Mediation: Theories to Reveal the Influences of Power in Family Mediation

Based on a doctoral dissertation study about court-based family mediation in South Florida, this interactive presentation identifies the complexity of institutionalized mediation and the experiential learning that influences court-based mediation.

Presenter(s): Rebecca Storrow, ADR Director, 15th Judicial Circuit and Alexia Georgakopoulos, Ph.D., Director, Institute for Conflict Resolution Communication.

Format: Lecture and group activities. Recommended for: Family mediators.

C10 Circle Process and Creative Problem Solving in Mediation

This interactive workshop demonstrates how to use the dispute resolution techniques of Circle Process and Creative Problem Solving, a group based method that encourages discussion and exploration of an issue between the parties, mediator and may also include other members of the group, in the mediation process. Presenters: Professor Susan Daicoff, Esquire, Florida Coastal Law School; and Elizabeth Roach, Esquire, Dispute Resolution Center. Format: Lecture with audience interaction and role plays.

Recommended for: All mediators.

C11 God as Mediation Participant

This interactive workshop explores the manner in which religion and religious world views impact the mediation process and offers practical ways of addressing religious issues and the ethical issues that apply. Presenter: Alexandra Hedrick, J.D., M. Div, Mediator and Arbitrator. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: All mediators.

C12 Mindfulness for Conflict Resolvers

This workshop focuses on Mindfulness, which is a systematic method of paying attention, deliberately, in the moment, without judgment, that can help us lower our stress levels and follow through on our intentions. Mindfulness helps us gain awareness of our thoughts, body sensations and emotions, and makes it possible for us to have a measure of freedom from distractions, reactivity, and habitual patterns of thought and behavior. By being mindful, we can be “present” to listen deeply to those with whom we work, and respond to them skillfully and effectively. Rachel Wohl and Professor Len Riskin have developed a new mindfulness technique that helps mediators and other conflict resolvers integrate mindfulness into their conflict resolution work. Presenter: Rachel Wohl, Esq., Keynote Presenter, Executive Director, Maryland Mediation and Conflict Resolution Office. Format: Lecture with audience participation/interaction. Recommended for: All mediators.

C13 Tips for Non-Attorney Mediators: Working with Attorneys

This session provides awareness of attorneys' roles and responsibilities in the mediation process as well as discusses varying styles of advocacy practice and how that impacts the mediation process. Presenter: Salvatore Gardino, MSW, Certified County, Family, Circuit and Dependency Mediator. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: Family mediators.

C14 Residential Foreclosure Mediation: A Tsunami Wave?

This workshop provides information on the Collins Center for Public Policy's Residential Mortgage Foreclosure Mediation Programs it is managing for the 1st, 11th and 19th judicial circuits, as well as consideration of the practical and ethical issues when mediating these cases. Presenter: Thomas H. Bateman III, Certified Circuit Civil Mediator, and ADR Rules and Policy Committee member. Format: Lecture with audience interaction. Recommended for: Circuit Civil mediators.