Florida Dispute Resolution Center
Training and Certification Process DVD Amendment 2012
for certified mediation training program attendees

Application for Mediator Certification

Letters of Reference

On January 10, 2011, Florida Supreme Court Chief Justice Canady signed Administrative Order AOSC11-1, Procedures Governing the Certification of Mediators. AOSC11-1 removed the certification requirement that applicants send the DRC two letters attesting to the good moral character of the applicant as part of the application process.

Educational Transcripts for Florida Bar members

On September 4, 2012, Florida Supreme Court Chief Justice Polston signed Administrative Order AOSC12-48, Procedures Governing the Certification of Mediators. AOSC12-48 removed the certification requirement that applicants who are active Florida Bar members need to send the DRC their law school transcript.

The DRC DVD “Training and Certification Process Overview” that is required viewing for this training program will be amended in the future to reflect these changes in policy.
