Section 790.401, Florida Statutes, does not require the court to record a hearing on a request to vacate a risk protection order; however, any party may arrange for a court reporter to record the hearing and to prepare a written transcript of the hearing at that party’s expense. Arrangements for a court reporter must be made in advance. In the event of an appeal, the appealing party will be required to provide the court with a written transcript of what was said at the hearing.

Respondent has a responsibility to keep the court informed, in writing, of any change of address. Failure to do so may jeopardize Respondent’s rights.
